

Travel Goods Show Highlights 2014

March 12, 2014

When Spring comes, many of our fancies turn to travel. After being cooped up inside for a couple of months we are stir crazy and ready to roam.

The Travel Goods Show is set up to debut all the stuff that you will need to make sure you are ready to fly around the country and globe in style and comfort.

As I toured around the show there were definitely some notable themes. Lighter luggage, oral care and a better travel pillow were options that kept coming up.

So, what stuck out to me? Glad you asked!

If bang for the buck is your interest than you cannot go wrong with LiteGear. They repeatedly showed me simple, elegant luggage that just worked. Every time they told me the price I would say, “No, not dealer price, retail,” and they would smile and pat me on the head. I cannot believe the quality they are putting out for the price they are quoting. I guess when you have the kind of industry experience they have, and apply it to starting your own business it can only be a good thing.
